

Inspirational Leadership Skills

Duration:

One Day

Objective

This one-day interactive and highly participative programme aims to provide you with a perfect springboard to success highlighting leadership techniques that have evolved throughout the ages. This programme provides examples and ideas from globally respected Management Gurus and other iconic world figures that can be introduced into both small and large organisations. If you are interested in finding out how inspiring leaders can build teams whose members work together effectively and positively, achieving the exceptional performance improvements that strong leadership brings, this is the programme for you.

Contents

This course includes:

- Defining the principal qualities of an inspirational leader
- Inspirational leaders in action - examples of individuals; their speeches and why they work so well
- Action centred leadership
- McGregor's theory - X and Y
- Studying leadership styles and how you can use them creatively
- The roles and responsibilities of a leader
- Using delegation as a leadership tool
- Presenting ideas and vision to a group
- Situational leadership
- Describe the different team roles
- Explain the four stages of teambuilding
- Set clear individual and team objectives
- Understand the power of motivation

Who should attend

Supervisors and managers with experience in their role, but have received little or no formal training. This programme is also ideal for anyone looking to provide clear direction and leadership to ensure maximum commitment in the achievement of operational objectives.

Course benefits

- Build working relationships which maintain the focus on the goals for your team and organisation
- Develop your coaching skills
- Practice effective communication skills to problem solve, give feedback and manage complex situations
- Increase your self-awareness
- Develop a framework for team-leading and team-work

Additional information

This course is ideally suited to equip delegates with the knowledge and skills to be regarded as effective, respected and motivational leaders. This programme includes a wide variety of examples and areas for further reading.

Certificates

All delegates who successfully complete this course will receive a certificate of attendance.

Trainers background

The trainer for this course has extensive experience in design and delivery of leadership and management training. They have been successfully delivering training to both public and private sector organisations for over ten years and previously held a number of senior management positions in industry.